

Survivors Say Metal Object Rammed Ship

EUREKA, Calif. (AP) — The 11 survivors of the dramatic rescue from the sinking yacht Hattie D early Wednesday off the California coast, insisted today that the craft was rammed by a metal object.

"I don't care how deep it was," said crewman Carl Johnson, "what holed us was steel and a long piece. There was no give to it at all." Johnson referred to the ocean's 7,800-foot depth in the area where the sinking occurred.

A Coast Guard helicopter, dipping between waves 30 feet high hoisted 10 men, the captain's wife and a German shepherd puppy from the pitching deck of the disabled Seattle yacht.

The Hattie D, a converted Navy search and rescue craft, sank 25 miles off the coast of Cape Mendocino.

There was speculation following the rescue that the yacht had struck a giant log. Other crewmen, however, agreed with Johnson.

"I think the Navy should start checking to see if they lost a submarine," Johnson added.

"Maybe they ought to see if anyone else has lost one, too."

The sinking ended a trip that began Jan. 24 at Seattle. The yacht left Neah Bay on the Washington coast headed for California last Sunday. Early Wednesday, the Hattie D struck an object off the rugged coast of Cape Mendocino.

The boat had been chartered by Wallace Rutherford. She was skippered by Charles Orcutt, 60.

For five hours, the crew huddled in the main cabin and waited for help to come. Forty-mile-an-hour winds made it impossible to launch life boats.

"All of the crew were wearing life jackets," said crewman A. J. Raiffe, "but little good they'd have been in that sea."

"That copter was only 15 feet above us when it lowered the basket," said Dewey Orcutt, 21, son of the skipper.

"We figure we are lucky we got out alive," added the skipper.

Orcutt and his wife, Evelyn, 55, were among the first taken off. Rutherford was one of the next.

Others aboard were Bob Orcutt, another son of the skipper, and crewmen Ron Harmon, Mike Oom, Ben McClain and Raiffe.

Sex Helping Battle on Insects

WASHINGTON (AP) — Agriculture's newest weapon against crop and livestock insect pests — sexual sterilization — appears to be helping man win a spectacular battle in the Southwest.

This weapon has been directed since 1959 at an infestation of the screwworm in parts of Texas, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Arkansas and Louisiana. This insect is a century-old pest of that region, having been known in Texas since 1843.

It can cause death to animals. The government said that before the start of the current eradication program, farmers lost as much as $100 million a year in livestock.

Under the new program, sterile male screwworm flies are released by airplanes in the infested areas. Eggs produced from their matings with native female flies will not hatch, leading, officials hope, to the eventual self-annihilation of the screwworm population.

During the last five weeks only one case of screwworm infestation of an animal has been reported. Officials said there has been a reduction of 97 per cent in the number of cases of

Tax Cut Bill

House Ways and Means Committee.

After the vote on the retail excise taxes, the Senate bogged down in six hours of heated debate over an attempt to knock out of the bill a section of public utility regulation.

Until that snag developed, managers of the bill had been confident they could bring the tax measure to a final vote by tonight.

On two close votes, the Senate decided to retain in the bill a House provision barring federal regulatory agencies from requiring utilities to pass along immediately to their customers tax savings achieved under the 1962 investment credit provision.

This credit permits companies to subtract from their taxes up to 7 per cent of the outlays for new machinery and equipment.

The Senate defeated 46-42 the amendment to eliminate the House language applying to regulation of natural gas pipelines, railroads, trucks, shipping lines and bus operators. These are eligible for the full 7 per cent credit.

It turned back 48-43 an attempt to strike out a similar provision dealing with electric, gas, water, telephone and telegraph companies. These get only a 3 per cent credit.

School under federal court order Wednesday, but were turned back by Rea who invoked a new city fire prevention ordinance.

Rea said he suspects arson in the filter plant fire Wednesday night which left the community's 1,200 residents with only a 36-hour supply of water.

State authorities began an immediate investigation.

Rea said emergency water conservation measures possibly would stretch the water supply until next week when the filter plant is expected to be repaired. He said these emergency measures include the closing of the schools.

The fire broke out shortly after the Justice Department asked a federal judge at Montgomery to prohibit Rea and others from further interference in the school desegregation.

A hearing was scheduled for Friday in Opelika on a government suit challenging Rea's use of the fire prevention ordinance to keep the Negro pupils out of the school.

At Washington, a Justice Department spokesman said the government entered the case at the request of the court during the original Tuskegee High School integration suit last year.

Twelve Negro pupils were ordered transferred to the Nottulsa and Shorter high schools by U.S. Dist. Judge Frank M. Johnson Jr. after the State School Board closed Tuskegee High as an economic liability.

White pupils quit Tuskegee High after it was integrated last year. They are attending other public schools or a private school.

Although the six pupils were turned back at Nottulsa, six other Negroes were enrolled peacefully at Shorter High School under the same court decree.

Chain Letters Are Lotteries

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Sheriff Ray Martin of Sharp County was advised by the attorney general's office today that "chain letters" are considered lotteries in Arkansas and as such are against the law.

Martin also was told that the letters violate federal postal regulations.

Fire Chief H. H. McKinney of Siloam Springs was advised in another opinion that state law requires schools to have a junior fire marshal program and hold at least one fire drill each month.

He was told also that it is a violation of state law to block the exits of school buildings.

Mayor Arthur Stone of Louann was told that state law provides for filling vacancies on municipal water commissions by appointment from the remaining members of the commission.

The appointment must be approved by the city council.

U.S. Proposal Ignored by Red Envoy

By MICHAEL GOLDSMITH

GENEVA (AP)—The United States urged the Soviet Union today to join in an immediate declaration to ban the transfer of nuclear weapons to nations that do not have them.

Soviet Delegate Semyon K. Tsarapkin ignored the proposal in a speech and launched into a bitter new attack on West Germany.

His attack drew a sharp rebuke from William C. Foster, director of the U.S. Arms Control and Disarmament Agency, who accused the Soviet delegate of trying to "return the cold war to the conference room."

Tsarapkin's speech to the 17-nation disarmament conference followed Foster's offer to negotiate immediately with Tsarapkin for the ban on the transfer of nuclear weapons.

At the end of the two-hour meeting, Tsarapkin told newsmen the negotiations proposed by Foster "are not excluded," but he stressed that the West would first have to scrap its planned multinational nuclear force. The West has rejected the idea.

The possible spread of nuclear weapons and weapon technology "constitutes a grave threat to the security and peace of all nations, large and small," Foster said.

Foster's statement today was an elaboration of one of the five major proposals President Johnson put before the conference when it resumed two weeks ago.

Making Breakdown of Poll Tax List

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — State Auditor Jimmie Jones is breaking the 1963 poll tax down into white and Negro voters even though the poll tax has been outlawed and probably will not be used in this year's elections.

Jones makes the breakdown each two years as a matter of information. It is not required by law.

A record 633,658 persons paid the poll tax last year to qualify to vote in this summer's primaries. The poll tax system is expected to be replaced with a voter registration system at a forthcoming special legislative session.

The last breakdown of poll tax figures in 1961 showed that of a total of 575,769 poll tax holders, 506,799 were white and 68,970 Negro.

Robbers Hit Okla. Bank, Get $25,000

RED OAK, Okla. (AP)—Three masked men robbed the Bank of Red Oak early today and fled after locking the cashier in the bank vault.

One estimate put the loss at between $20,000 and $25,000.

Sheriff Jim Lawrence said the bandits accosted cashier Oliver Brewer as he arrived at the bank in this community of about 500 persons near Wilburton in southeastern Oklahoma. One robber held a sawed-off shotgun on Brewer.

Brewer said the safe opened automatically at 7:30 a. m. and that the bandits took the money from it and also $1,500 from a cash drawer, then fled in a

Says System Always Fights Any Poverty

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Edwin P. Neilan, president of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, said today the free enterprise system has always been engaged in a war against poverty.

Neilan told a breakfast meeting of the Freedom Forum that the three great weapons against poverty are expanding education, profits and investments.

Neilan, a Wilmington, Del., banker, said, "The places where higher education has not taken root are the areas of economic distress which no amount of federal pump-priming and artificial stimulation has ever relieved."

He said expanding education is important because it increases public understanding and improves productivity and incomes.

He said it is important that investors be allowed to make a profit or the incentive for investment is lost.

Charles B. Shuman, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation, said farmers asked for federal help 30 years ago and instigated a policy that today chokes off agriculture.

Lawrence said he felt the loss would be less than the $25,000 figure mentioned in one report but that the exact amount had not been determined.

Smoking Probe O.K. by Committee

WASHINGTON (AP)—A proposed multimillion-dollar crash program of research to remove health hazards from smoking won unanimous approval today from the House Agriculture Committee.

Committee Chairman Harold D. Cooley, D-N.C., said the program would include authority to set up laboratories and field stations to look into health factors of tobacco. The Secretary of Agriculture would determine their location.

He suggested that $5 million to $10 million would be needed to get the program under way.

The research effort was proposed shortly after a government sponsored panel of experts reported that cigarette smoking presents health hazards, and that something should be done.

Cooley said he does not challenge the statistics presented by the government report.

"But the study of smoking and health is in its infancy," he said. "Nobody knows what it is, if anything, in tobacco that might be injurious to health."

The proposed research, he said, "is intended to accomplish maximum assurances of health in the use of tobacco."

The 15 party guests included Mrs. Cary Castle of North Little Rock, a sister of the guest of honor. Lime sherbet, nuts, and cookies were served for refreshments.

Killing Food Stamp Plan Hurts County

By J. C. TILLMAN

BATESVILLE, Ark. (AP) — House Committee action killing the federal food stamp plan will work a severe hardship on Independence County, the only Arkansas area where the pilot program is operated.

This is the opinion of county officials, recipients of the stamps and merchants.

"The stamp program has satisfied everybody," says County Judge William Wood. "It's doing much better than expected and been increasing several months. Several hundred folks are in on the program now."

The program won't be halted immediately but when it is dropped, Independence County will have to find another $7,000 a month to finance transportation, storage and distribution of welfare commodities.

"This will work an awful hardship on us, an awful expense," Wood said today.

Worse than finding the money, the county has no suitable place to store commodities. Under the stamp plan, recipients took federally issued stamps to retailers and redeemed them for food.

"We have an old shack down on the county yard that we have rented out," Wood said. "When the pilot program started, we had three or four little old buildings on the county yard we bought for the commodities. But they're in bad condition."

"I can't even find a place to rent," he added.

When the program was first started in April of last year, 1,153 persons benefited at a cost of $6,798. At the last monthly report, Dec. 31, 1963, there were 1,856 persons on the rolls and the cost of the program that month was $6,746.

Proponents claim the stamp plan increases the demand for foods that would otherwise add to the nation's surplus and that it injects needed money into the local economy at the local level.

Wood said merchants like the plan.

"I understand that the bigger supermarkets are getting the most of the business," he said. "People like to go where they have a wider choice."

N. U. Carpenter, who handles distribution of stamps in the county, says most people he has talked to today "are sorry to hear of its closing."

The American Farm Bureau Federation is against any extension of the plan, but the Arkansas organization has not been active in opposing it.

The state organization feels, like the national group, that the plan represents an extension of the government into the business of agriculture and the food industry.

It says the plan has not increased consumption of food significantly in pilot areas.

The Arkansas Wholesale Grocers Association urged Gov. Orval E. Faubus to approve the pilot program and the U.S. Department of Agriculture estimated business in Independence County would be boosted by $335,000 a year.

Report Cards for Convicts

RAWLINS, Wyo. (AP)—Convicts are getting report cards at the Wyoming Penitentiary.

Warden Lenard Meacham instituted the plan this week—with grades of A and B meaning a prisoner can be considered for trusty status or special privileges.

When a convict enters prison, he is automatically graded with a C. The grade is reviewed periodically.

State Says Man Without Psychosis

HARRISBURG, Ark. (AP) — The State Hospital has found Frank Harris, 57, of Jonesboro, charged with first degree murder in the death of Leonard Dever, without psychosis. Dever, his wife and four children died last Dec. 21 when their house at Trumann was destroyed by fire. Two surviving children told authorities a man came into the house, shot their parents, and set fire to the house before fleeing. Harris, an ex-convict, is to be tried in March. He is held in the Poinsett County Jail at Harrisburg.

Landy Gets Contract for 11 Years

DALLAS (AP) — Last season the Dallas Cowboys lost 10 games and won only four in the National Football League. In four years under Coach Tom Landry their record is 13-38-3. So what does multimillionaire club owner Clint Murchison do? He signs Landry Wednesday to a new 10-year contract, believed by some to be the longest in professional sports.

With one year still to go on his original pact, that means the matter of a new Landry contract won't need to come up again for 11 years.

Landry, 39, joined the fledgling Dallas club after serving as an assistant on the New York Giants' staff, reportedly drawing $30,000 a year.

Terms of his extended contract were not disclosed.

General Manager Tex Schramm said, however, it raises Landry's salary and the terms "make Tom one of the higher paid coaches in the NFL."

Montreal Steps Up Hockey Pace

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Montreal is stepping up the tempo in its National Hockey League stretch duel with Chicago, but the Black Hawks are matching the Flying Frenchmen length for length.

The Canadiens stayed on the move Wednesday as goalie Charlie Hodge blanked Toronto 2-0. Chicago kept pace as the "scooter" line — Stan Mikita, Ken Wharram and Ab McDonald — collaborated for a 4-2 victory over Detroit.

New York, battling the Red Wings for the last Stanley Cup playoff spot, failed to gain ground when Boston upended the Rangers 3-2.

Wednesday's victories left Montreal and Chicago in a first place tie, with 62 points each. Toronto's fading NHL defenders are eight points back. New York with 44 points, is one ahead of fifth place Detroit.

The Canadiens dealt the Maple Leafs their ninth shutout defeat of the season. Bobby Rousseau and Gilles Tremblay each scored his 19th season goal and Hodge turned back 23 Toronto shots to post his fourth blank job.

Chicago blew a 2-0 lead and then clipped the Red Wings on goals by McDonald and Wharram in the last two minutes. Mikita picked up three assists to raise his league-leading point total to 70.

Ex-Rangers Dean Prentice, Andy Hebenton and Orland Kurtenbach produced goals that gave New York its fourth loss in 16 games. Former Bruin Don McKenney scored both Ranger goals.

Lincoln Show Still Has Its Impact

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Robert E. Sherwood's "Abe Lincoln in Illinois," first produced almost 30 years ago, has lost none of its impact, timeliness and poignancy over the years.

The 1938 play, adapted to 90 minutes of television was presented by NBC Wednesday night with reverence for the original. Jason Robards Jr. played the brooding character of Lincoln with great sensitivity and authority. Kate Reid's development of Mary Todd from vivacious and high spirited girl to a nagging explosive shrew was done so well that she kept the sympathy of the viewer from the disturbed woman.

The necessity of adjusting the Sherwood play to television's rigid time requirements resulted in a more shallow portrait of Lincoln during those formative years in Illinois. There just wasn't time to cover the events of the 30 years up to 1860 and still really plumb the mind and soul of the unhappy tortured man who was so reluctant to accept his destiny.

But it was altogether an impressive and enlightening theatrical experience. As in all "Hall of Fame" specials, the production was magnificent in the richness and authenticity of its detail.

The one glaring weakness of the adaptation was the inadequate motivation that drew Lincoln back to Mary Todd after he had literally run away from her on their wedding eve.

Ever since the three major networks permitted details of their proposed 1964-65 schedules to leak out last week, all of them have been frantically busy rearranging, eliminating and adding new shows.

Most recent switch involves NBC's reported dumping of its expensive "Project 120," which was to be a weekly two-hour feature film on Wednesday nights. Each program was to be made expressly for television.

One show, "Johnny North," had been made as a pilot for the series, and almost a million dollars was tied up in the endeavor. That means the network has a two-hour spot to be filled.

Finley in Town for More Talks

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Charles O. Finley, owner of the Kansas City Athletics, was in town today for another tilt with the City Council over a lease on Municipal Stadium.

Finley has refused to discuss reports that he would offer a compromise calling for a three-year lease.

In five previous sessions with the council Finley has said he would be risking bankruptcy under a lease longer than two years.

Tony Kubek Makes Like a President

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—Tony Kubek sounds like a league president predicting a 10-team tie. Everybody in the American League is going to be tough. The Yankees are good but there isn't a pushover in the bunch. Kubek was in Wausau, Wis., Wednesday when the Yankees announced he had signed his contract for an estimated $38,000. His amplified comments were made available to newsmen through a telephone hookup from his home.

"How cold is it out there?" a fellow asked, thinking in terms of 20 below and four-foot snow drifts.

"It's about 40 and feels like spring," was Kubek's image-shattering reply. "We did have one stretch about 20 below for a few days."

Taking another approach, a reporter asked the Yankee shortstop what he thought about the race.

"Minnesota is tough. They've been erratic but now their defense ought to be a little better and their pitching is better. Chicago has to figure strictly on pitching. You can't forget Baltimore. Hank Bauer will get those guys jelled. Detroit always gives us more trouble than anybody. Kansas City has good hitting if they can get the pitching straightened out."

Rams Get Iman From Packers

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Line-man Ken Iman, four-year veteran of the National Football League, is the latest addition to the Los Angeles Rams squad. The Rams announced Wednesday that they had acquired Iman from the Green Bay Packers, but details were not revealed.

Texas Team Rated High in Little Schools

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Pan American, Tex. is flying high in The Associated Press' small-college basketball poll Thursday on the strength of four victories last week that boosted its record to 17-3.

In the past two weeks, during which they made a successful tour of the East, the Texans have climbed from ninth place to third in the balloting by a special regional panel of eight writers and broadcasters.

The Texas team collected 51 points in the latest vote. Evansville, Ind. remained in first place with 71 points followed by Grambling, La. with 68. Points were awarded on a basis of 10 for a first place vote, 9 for second etc.

Evansville and Grambling each won two games last week, lifting the Aces' record to 14-2 and the Grambling Tigers to 18-1.

Wittenberg and Youngstown joined Pan American among the teams on the way up. Wittenberg climbed one place to sixth after defeating Heidelberg. Youngstown, which was not in the Top Ten a week ago, moved up to ninth although its 16-game unbeaten streak was ended by Central State of Ohio.

Kentucky Wesleyan, 12-3, dropped from third to fourth although it beat Washburn 66-59. Hofstra, victor over Rider and Kings Point for a 14-3 slate, held fifth place.

Washington of Missouri fell one place to seventh after losing to Valparaiso. Unbeaten Assumption held eighth following its 11th victory, a 76-70 defeat of St. Michael's, Vt.

Western Carolina slumped from ninth to 10th despite three victories last week. Fresno State dropped out of the first ten.

Near Cave City, in Sharp County, there is a huge cave with a deep underground river that has never been explored and nobody knows where it begins or ends.

New York Mets

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP)—This is the time of the year when The Associated Press asks me for my opinion about the coming season and they're true to form.

I have to tell the AP now that the manager of the New York Mets, and that's me, is forced to wait until after our early instructional camp and regular spring training to draw an accurate picture.

The instructional camp, which I first instituted with the Yankees some years ago, begins here tomorrow.

I can tell you this right now. Our minor league department has done a splendid job, so for the first time in our history we have enough players to make an instructional camp worthwhile. It always was when I was with the Yankees.

Just look at some of the wonderful kid pitchers we have coming to camp. Like Dick Selma, Ron Locke, Dick Gardner and a young fellow named Wilson. Each of them struck out more than 200 batters last season.

Then there's Grover Powell, a lefty who came up from Buffalo late last season and pitched a shutout the first time he started, against Philadelphia. These young fellows are going to get the work from our new pitching coach, Mel Harder.

Harder could be a big help to Jack Fisher, who used to be a good one for the Orioles before we got him from the Giants last year. Harder, in fact, should be able to help all of our pitchers—like Jay Hook and Tracy Stallard, who want to work on new pitches.

Al Jackson, Carl Willey, Larry Bearnarth and Galen Cisco all did pretty well this year and we'll build around them.

Our biggest improvement could be the outfield where we didn't get any distance hitting until the season was half over. George Altman, who we got from the Cardinals, hit only nine home runs last year, but he hit almost 50 over the two years before that.

Hickman hit 17 home runs and he's still learning the pitchers. We'll have Duke Snider from the beginning of spring training and maybe he'll improve on his 14 homers. Frank Thomas, our big right-handed slugger, just might like our new Shea Stadium.

Bob Taylor and Larry Elliot, whom we purchased recently, hit the long ball. Elliot slammed 26 home runs for Columbus. And for speed in the outfield, there's this Cleon Jones.

Now I want to say something about my new coaches, Wes Westrum and Don Heffner. Westrum, a great receiver with the Giants, should help what was a weak department last year. He'll make our catchers think.

And he'll also help fellows like Jesse Gonder and Choo-Choo Coleman with the glove. Heffner will work on our shortstops. Al Moran, Amado Samuel, Larry Burright and Wilbur Huckle. I hope we can come up with a third baseman from among Pumpsie Green, Hickman and Rod Kanehl.

Tim Harkness, our first baseman, will get plenty of competition from Ed Kranepool, Bill Haas and Duke Carmel, who can also play in the outfield. Haas hit .325 in the Dodger farm system last year.

Ron Hunt, our second baseman, is set. He hit better than .270 and got some votes as rookie of the year. He may be even better this year.

Memorable Cage Year for Few Coaches

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

This is a memorable year for many college basketball coaches.

Kentucky's veteran Adolph Rupp notched his 700th career victory last Monday. Duke's Vic Bubas reached his 100th milestone Wednesday night.

Hank Iba of Oklahoma State and Slat Gill of Oregon State are next in line to celebrate. Iba needs only three more victories to hit the 700 mark. Gill needs eight for his 600 milestone.

Bubas, 34-year-old native of Gary, Ind., had no worries as Duke swamped North Carolina State 66-48 and set an Atlantic Coast Conference record of 26 straight ACC victories.

The Blue Devils, seventh-ranked nationally in The Associated Press poll, led by only 25-21 at the half, but then pulled away as Hack Tison, Jeff Mullins and Jay Buckley combined for 42 points.

Sixth-ranked Villanova beat St. Bonaventure 57-52 for its 13th straight victory and 10th-ranked DePaul rolled over Notre Dame 90-75 in two other top games on Wednesday's collegiate program. Ray Meyer, DePaul coach, now is within four victories of his 350th celebration.

Cincinnati snapped a five-game losing streak by defeating Dayton 77-64. Memphis State handed Creighton its first home defeat of the season 87-86. Syracuse edged Niagara 83-81 in overtime on Dave Bink's shot with four seconds left and Oklahoma City also went an extra period to defeat St. Louis 80-75.

Once-beaten Villanova, now 17-1, overcame an 11-point deficit to beat the Bonnies at Philadelphia's Palestra. A corner shot by George Jessup put the Wildcats ahead for good at 31-29.

DePaul, also only beaten once made its record 14-1, as Jesse Nash flipped in 25 points and grabbed 20 rebounds. It marked the first time in nine years that the Blue Demons have defeated Notre Dame twice in one season.

Florida Thinks of Derby Win

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Florida boosters think they may have another Kentucky Derby winner in a strapping young 3-year-old named Roman Brother.

On the basis of his record to date, Roman Brother could take his place alongside Needles and Carry Back, only other Florida-breds to run in the Kentucky Derby and win.

Roman Brother, gelded son of Third Brother out of Roman Zephyr by Roman, has never been out of the money in his eight races and Wednesday won the Bahamas Stakes by 3½ lengths.

In doing so, Roman Brother defeated Journalist, Mr. Brick, Bupers and nine others in the seven-furlong sprint and justified his role as favorite with the crowd of 18,214 at Hialeah. The time was 1:23 1-5.

U.S. Women Only Ones to Win Medals

By TED SMITS
Associated Press Sports Editor

INNSBRUCK, Austria (AP)—The women are winning the gold medal for Russia at the ninth Winter Olympics.

The men are having trouble. And two women in particular are doing most of the Soviet gold medal collecting.

Russia has eight gold medals with the 12-day Olympics two-thirds over. The closest Soviet competitors, France and Finland, each have three.

Americans are finding consolation in the fact that the United States and Russia are tied in gold medals, one to one, if only the men are counted.

Six of the Soviet gold medals are in women's events. Lidia Skoblikova alone collected four in the speed skating. Claudia Boyarskikh harvested two more in the Nordic cross country races.

A seventh gold medal went to the Soviet pairs figure skaters, Ludmilla Belousova and her husband Oleg Protopopov.

The only Soviet victor so far in a completely men's event was Vladimir Melanin in the biathlon.

On Tuesday, Terry McDermott won the first gold medal for the United States by taking the 500-meter sprint in Olympic record time, beating the 1960 champion Evgeny Grishin and a couple of other Russian favorites.

On Wednesday a trio of Norwegians shut out several more Russian skaters in the 5,000-meter race. Knut Johannessen won in 7:38.6, followed by Fred Anon Maier in 7:42.0.

All the Norwegians and Russia's Victor Kosichkin broke the Olympic record. The Russian's time of 7:45.8 gave him no better than fourth place.

Kosichkin, like Grishin in the 500 meter, was the defending champion in the 5,000 meters. He finished first to Johannessen's second in the Squaw Valley Games.

Miss Boyarskikh won her second gold medal Wednesday in the five-kilometer (3.1 miles) cross country race. She previously won the 10-kilometer (6.2 miles) cross country.

The Russian girl had a time of 17:50.5. Mirja Lehtonen of Finland was second in 17:52.9, and Alevtina Kolchina, also of Russia, was third in 18:06.4.

Another gold medal Wednesday went to Austrians Josef Feistmantl and Manfred Stengl in the pairs toboggan race. They had a time of 1:41.62 for the two runs.

Americans Gloomy Over Olympics

By JIM BECKER

Associated Press Sports Writer

INNSBRUCK, Austria (AP)—"About the only way you can play on an American Olympic team is to be a millionaire, or a bum."

Walter Bush of Minneapolis, manager of the U.S. Olympic hockey team, sat in the gloomy dressing room Wednesday night after the defending champion Americans had lost their last chance for even a bronze Olympic medal and analyzed the defeat.

"We just have to revise our system," Bush said. "We are playing one system against another."

"The Russians are pros. One of the Swedes makes $45,000 a year. He drives a big black American car brought this year, and every kid in Sweden uses a hockey stick with his name on it."

"We either do something about it, or we might consider whether we should even be competing."

Paul Johnson, one of the three players left from the 1960 Olympic champion team, sat in the corner, angrily slamming his pads into a tattered canvas carrying case.

Johnson had left the ice early by request after he tangled with a Czech in the closing minutes of Wednesday night's game.

"Nah, it wasn't a rough game," he said. "We had a bad night. That makes four out of five."

The Americans were ripped by a strong, smooth-working Czechoslovakia team 7-1. The U.S. record now is 1-4, with two games left. A fifth or sixth place finish is in store.

In other championship games Wednesday, Canada beat Finland 6-2, Russia trounced Germany 10-0, and Sweden crushed Switzerland 12-0.

Russia and Canada lead with 5-0 records. Sweden and Czechoslovakia are close behind with 4-1 each.

Today is a day off for the contenders with the vital games Friday and Saturday. On Friday, Russia meets Sweden and Canada takes on the Czechs.

Saturday, the Czechs and Swedes clash with Canada facing Russia in the probable payoff match.

President Has to Be a Showman

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) —Lucky Calvin Coolidge was president when the strong silent type was still an American ideal. It fitted him fine. He didn't have much to say anyway. When he did use radio, it was dismal.

President Franklin D. Roosevelt went on radio every time he thought it useful, and he used news conferences, too, although the latter weren't on radio and there wasn't television.

He became a kind of national father by the sheer magic of his humorous, barbed, consoling, concerned and always controlled voice. No wonder he stayed in office. Who wants to throw out the head of the family?

Now radio and television have made a president an almost constant showman. This can be a political help. But when he has to keep asking himself—how am I doing?—in order to stay in focus, it's bound to make him self-conscious.

President John F. Kennedy worked overtime, staying in front of the camera. The picture that came across was of a highly intelligent, extremely well-informed, witty and self-assured young man.

This was how he wanted to appear, of course, and he did it all with great ease and grace.

But no one watching, either at one of his news conferences or on television, could escape the feeling he was conscious of the whole country observing his every expression and gesture, and judging accordingly.

President Johnson in public has neither Kennedy's wit nor ease. He not only looks far more self-conscious than his predecessor but acts that way. For example, at last Saturday's news conference, which was televised.

Johnson is a hearty, positive, ebullient man. Saturday he looked deliberately subdued, almost mournful with dignity, and certainly not too positive on at least one area of foreign affairs. This was when he gave his views on French President de Gaulle's proposal to neutralize Southeast Asia. Later, after some conversations with the State Department, his aides sought to clarify his meaning.

The whole performance appeared unnatural for a man of Johnson's zip. This probably explains why he still hasn't settled on any one way to hold a news conference.

Even so, with the statements he has made, the policies he has announced, the programs he has mentioned to Congress, and his few solemn public talks on television, he has done well politically.

The evidence is in the public opinion polls which show him ahead of all the would-be presidential candidates among the Republicans.

Unfortunately for him, his greatest asset is one which simply can't be shown on a screen. That's his relentless driving energy—the endless hours, the deluge of telephone calls, the White House sessions with his aides, the conferences with

Reds Fail to Get on Arizona Ballot

NEW YORK (AP)—The Communist party's chances of getting on the election ballot in Arizona have gone—ZIP—out the window.

Arnold Johnson, the party's public relations director, said Tuesday Asst. Atty. Gen. Philip M. Haggerty of Arizona had written him that a 1961 law bars Communists from the state's election ballots.

Haggerty, replying to a party query on the matter, he added: "The subversive nature of your organization is even more clearly designated by the fact that you do not even include your ZIP code on your letter."

members of Congress—to push through what he wants done.

In this particular area—the energy, drive, follow-up and determination to keep trying—Kennedy could never match him. Kennedy's biggest defect, perhaps, was lack of pursuit, his failures to hammer on Congress to get what he wanted.

This explains why some of his biggest programs, once they ran into stiff congressional resistance, bogged down.

THE STORY: Gail Covalt and Duffey are hiding out in Maggie O'Brien's cabin in the mountains.

XVI

We went back to the cabin in silence. Not holding hands. Thoughtful. I picked up the glasses on the steps. When we were in the kitchen I said, "You fix us a drink and I'll build a fire in the fireplace. It's going to be cold tonight."

"Nothing could be colder than where we've been or where we're going or what comes after."

"Shut up!" I snapped. "Yes, Duffey. Yes, Jack. Yes, Chet. Yes, Mike. Yes, Joe." She was standing with her hands clenched at her sides, tears streaming down her cheeks.

I crossed to her and found a handkerchief with my left hand. I dabbed at the tears. "Please," I said, "please stop. I love you."

"Shut up, Duffey. Shut up, yourself!"

"Yes, Gail."

She said finally, "There are a thousand islands in the Pacific, a thousand-thousand islands. Could we reach one of them, Duffey? Just a little one and steal it. So little it would never be missed."

I said, "Darling, we're on an island, just you and me. It's a momentary island and it's going to sink in the sea, but we'll come back again."

"You're lying, Duffey."

"No, listen, my mother left me a little money, not much, but enough for another island, and when this is over..."

"How much?"

"About four thousand..."

"Duffey, Duffey." She reached up and pulled my head down over hers until our eyes were about an inch apart. Somehow, our noses fitted beautifully. She whispered, "Duffey, I have 10 times that much, all green, all folding, all hidden, all waiting. Would that buy us a real island?"

I said, "I read something about that. Brazil, its the only place without reciprocal extradition arrangements. It's not much of an island, I think."

Gail said, "Do you know what's the matter with me?"

"No."

"I'm in love with you, Duffey. Maybe for the second time in my life, I'm in love. Now, for the first time, with a guy who wouldn't let me down."

"Sure," I said. "Only I haven't given up on us. I had you take me to Maggie so I could gain a little time. I need that time. The pattern has been formed. I don't know the answers, but I'm beginning to see the connections. Did you know a bartender named Jimmy Turner?"

"Of course," Gail said. "He was the best bartender at..."

"The place I saw you for the first time. Saw you, and he was gone."

"He's been gone for two weeks," Gail said. Her glance was puzzled, forgetting our tragedy, which could have had both of us in tears.

"He's as dead as I was supposed to be," I told her. "As dead as the Jinx up in 'Q.' As dead as everybody who has tried or was supposed to give me a hand. All except Solly,

Education, Drink Go Together

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP) —

The more education an American has, the more likely he is to drink, says Robert W. Jones, assistant director of the Center of Alcohol Studies at Rutgers University.

Well over half of the people with only an elementary education drink, he said Tuesday night. Approximately 70 per cent of the people with high school educations drink and the percentage is greater among college graduates, Jones said.

Teen-agers generally follow the example of the parents, drinking if they do, Jones said, and added that most American drinkers start at the age of 16 or 17.

The proportion of women who drink has increased because of more leisure time, their acceptance in taverns, an increase of drinking with meals and other factors, Jones said.

WONDERFULLY GOOD FAMILY DISH

SALMON LOAF, attractively garnished with lemon curls and cherry tomatoes is an economical and nutritious dish for Lenten meals.

The pleasures of the Lenten table are not restricted to those whose religion requires the observation. For Lenten fare are tempting dishes for everyone. And the simpler dishes are a pleasant change from the rich foods of the winter season. It's a good time, too, to balance the budget with low-cost menus, but not to the sacrifice of nutrition.

SALMON MACARONI LOAF

1 cup elbow macaroni
2 cups milk
1/2 cup butter

- 1 1-pound can salmon
- 6 eggs, lightly beaten
- 1 4-ounce can pimiento, drained and chopped
- 2 tablespoons chopped onion
- 2 cups soft bread crumbs
- 2 teaspoons salt
- 1 cup grated American cheese

Cook macaroni in 6 cups boiling water for 10 minutes. Drain and rinse. In saucepan combine milk, butter, and liquid from can of salmon. Heat until hot and butter is melted. Stir into beaten eggs. Add pimiento, macaroni, onion, crumbs, salt, and cayenne. Flake and stir in salmon. Turn mixture into an oiled loaf pan, 11 1/2 x 4 1/2 x 2 1/2 inch, and sprinkle with cheese. Bake in a preheated 350°F. oven for 60 to 65 minutes. Serve hot or cold with favorite sauce, if desired.

China May Be Ready to Go It Alone

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

Red China may be on the verge of a go-it-alone policy which could carve the Communist world into two distinct and even opposing blocs.

Peking is flexing new muscles. Possibly it feels more confident since the recognition extended by France. Turning Nikita against him, Peking implies the Soviet premier and his European Communist should let Red China lead the revolution in Asia and Africa.

Khrushchev, who once promised to bury the West's social system, himself is going to be buried by the revolutionary movement, said Peking in its latest broadcast.

The attack accused Khrushchev of encouraging an "anti-party group" inside the Chinese party. The use of this phrase—coined by Khrushchev—is tinged with sarcasm.

The Chinese party never had a violent purge in the old Soviet style. If it had purges it avoided advertising them. But there is a hint in the use of the term "anti-party" that Mao Tse-tung handled resistance to his policies within his own Politburo in the only way Communists seem able to deal with differences of opinion.

It is widely known that Khrushchev opposed Mao's attempt to launch Red China on the "great leap forward." Khrushchev applauded those in the Peking leadership—like Marshal Peng Teh-huai, an old comrade of Mao—who resisted the great leap.

The experiment with the great leap and people's communes—abandoned as a failure—is known to have caused trouble in the Communist Chinese army. Some officers feared it meant an end to Soviet military aid. Others resented expansion of the Chinese militia and the use of regular army soldiers as laborers.

Peng Teh-huai eventually was removed as defense minister and tossed off the Politburo. He has disappeared from public view.

The difference of opinion over China's internal policies was a root cause of the ideological split with the Kremlin.

Now the Chinese are beginning to sound like a party about to go its own way, and even to assert its undisputed sway over the revolution in Asia and Africa, on the ground that Khrushchev and his supporters have forfeited their claim to leadership.

They deny that Khrushchev has any right to unchallenged leadership in the first place. The Chinese indicate it was their understanding that in this

Paul Bryant Settles Suit for $300,000

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. (AP)—

Alabama football Coach Paul Bryant, with a smile on his face and a $300,000 tax-free settlement, plans to get some rest.

"I'm not much of a golfer, but I might be about 30 days from now. I have been ordered by Dr. Rose (Frank Rose, president of the university) to take a rest," Bryant told friends Tuesday night.

It was announced earlier that he had accepted $300,000 in compensatory, tax-free damages for two Saturday Evening Post articles.

Bryant was suing for $10.5 million in libel damages, and a trial had been set in U.S. District Court in Birmingham Feb. 10.

Bryant's legal fight against Curtis Publishing Co., owners of Saturday Evening Post, began in January, 1963, when he filed a $500,000 libel suit for an article, "College Football is Going Berserk," which imputed that historical period the Russians were to be no more than first among equals—guides and perhaps financiers of the revolution but with no right to dictate to other Communist-ruled countries.

ST. LOUIS (AP)—A Federal Reserve Bank report said Monday that business is rising slower in the metropolitan areas of Little Rock, Louisville, Memphis and St. Louis than in the rest of the country.

The report said the four city areas were slower than average in seven of the eight activities used to measure the economy.

The four cities lagged in non-farm employment, total employment, manufacturing employment, department store sales, non-manufacturing employment, bank deposits and check payments. Check payments are used to measure banking activities.

The reports said the only index that increased over the national average was the industrial use of electricity.

Bryant encouraged acts of brutality on the playing field.

The second suit concerned the March, 1963, edition's article, "The Story of a College Football Fix," which accused Bryant and former University of Georgia Athletic Director Wallace Butts of conspiring to fix the 1962 Alabama-Georgia football game.

A breakdown of the settlement indicates that Bryant accepted $275,000 for the alleged "fix" story, and $25,000 for the one imputing he condoned brutality.

Sammie, the Starling Fights for His Life

By JIM BRYANT

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—Sammie the starling was fighting for his life early today, waging a cold, lonely battle for survival inside the cockpit of a World War II fighter plane.

The scene was the Air Force Museum at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base.

Sammie's curiosity got him on the spot, and his shyness kept him from an early rescue.

How he got inside the P-51, locked tightly on the grounds of the museum, was a mystery.

Somehow Sammie must have crawled through one of the air vents leading to the cockpit. Once there, he couldn't find his way out.

Noticing the bird's furious fluttering inside his glass-and-metal prison Monday, sightseers called an Air Force captain over.

"I'll get someone from the museum to let him out," said the captain.

He went inside the museum and returned in a few minutes.

"They'll be out with a key in a few minutes," he said.

But "they" didn't appear. Sammie continued to flutter, the spectators continued to speculate, and the day began to wane.

A policeman drove up in an Air Force truck. When someone pointed out the bird, the policeman went into the museum building and emerged several minutes later with a key.

"This ought to do it," he said with a grin.

His grin turned to a frown, however, when he opened the door of the fighter. No Sammie.

A teen-ager crawled into the cockpit. There was a tiny hole leading from the rear of the cockpit.

"He must have gone back there, but I can't feel anything in the hole," he said.

Convinced that Sammie must have gone out the way he had come in, he locked the cockpit again. The policeman drove away. The crowd dispersed.

A few moments later, Sammie was back again.

As darkness fell, Sammie, the lonely starling, was still sitting atop the pilot's seat.

Will Continue to Aid Fairs in State

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus told a meeting of the Arkansas Fair Managers Association Monday that the state will continue to give financial aid to fairs in the state because they are "great show windows for Arkansas agriculture."

And Faubus said the help would go on even if he is not governor.

Faubus said the county, district and state fairs are show windows for the state's agriculture, "and, people being what they are, you've got to have a show window."

The fair managers are discussing technical problems at several business sessions during a two-day meeting with closes today.

Lucy Baines in Bed With Cold

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson's youngest daughter, Lucy Baines, 16, was reported in bed with a cold Monday.

A White House spokesman said Lucy, a student at National Cathedral School, was confined to her room while other members of her family greeted 400 college editors at an afternoon White House reception.

Withdrawal of Lucy Show Hurts CBS

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—The withdrawal of Lucille Ball from weekly situation comedy has hit CBS where it hurts most—in the powerful lineup of panel games and comedy that helped turn Mondays into the night with the week's heaviest viewing.

The announcement that Lucy would end the series after this season obviously surprised network programmers. They started frantically looking at pilot shows for a comedy replacement.

Danny Thomas' impending departure tore the first big hole in next season's Monday night schedule. CBS expected to patch that with something called "December Groom." Now there is another vital half hour open.

Established, well-loved situation comedy stars of Ball and Thomas stature are rare.

As next season's schedules take final shape, ABC still has the most time spots to fill.

Among its shows that seem definite are "Wagon Train," shrunk back to its original one hour's length, on Saturday night opposite Jackie Gleason, and a sudsy series called "Peyton Place," presumably a watered-down child of the book, consisting of two half-hour programs a week—late, after the kiddies have gone to bed.

"Bewitched," a fantasy about a suburban housewife who is a real witch and starring Elizabeth Montgomery, is expected to go into the spot now occupied by "The Jimmy Dean Show."

The most extraordinary goings-on surround the appearance next Sunday of the British rock 'n' roll group called "The Beatles." Ed Sullivan will put the quartet live on his CBS show for two consecutive weeks.

The network, literally, is swamped with requests for tickets to the show—50,000 by the end of last week. The theater seats only 728.

Requests by CBS vice presidents, even sponsors, have been turned down.

Florida Celery and Peanut Butter Combinations for Lunch Box

CRISP, FRESH FLORIDA CELERY IS IN SEASON NOW. Add its distinctive flavor and texture to the nutty goodness of peanut butter and you've a winner. Peanut butter, so good nutritionally, is already a staple sandwich filling. Combined with celery, these two popular foods make a new addition to lunch box menus. Here are five ideas for peanut butter and Florida celery to sharpen up the lunch box.

1. Fill crisp celery stalks with smooth or chunky peanut butter. Wrap with transparent saran or aluminum foil. Include two or three stalks in each lunch box.

2. Spread two slices of raisin bread generously with smooth peanut butter. Sprinkle one slice with plenty of thinly sliced celery. Top, peanut butter side down, with other slice of bread to make a sandwich.

3. Mix peanut butter with equal parts of cream cheese, and a dash of salt. Spread mixture into crisp celery stalks. Chill. Slice into 1/2-inch slices and toss with grapefruit and orange sections and French dressing. Pack in a lidded paper container and include with a plastic spoon in lunch box.

4. Saute 3 tablespoons peanut butter and 1/4 cup finely chopped celery in 1 tablespoon butter for 5 minutes. Stir in one can (10-1/2 ounces) cream of chicken soup and one soup can water. Heat. Pour into wide mouth vacuum jug and include with plastic spoon in lunch box. Makes 2 or 3 servings.

5. Fill crisp celery stalks with peanut butter. Sprinkle peanut butter with toasted coconut or chopped dates or chopped candied ginger for a treat, not too sweet. Wrap in transparent saran or aluminum foil.

Astronaut Can Spy on Earth Enemy

By HOWARD BENEDICT

BROOKS AIR FORCE BASE, Tex. (AP)—An orbiting astronaut can spy effectively on enemy territory with the unaided eye, a team of Air Force ophthalmologists reported today.

The group from the Aerospace Medical Division, told a space medicine conference here that the finding was based on studies of visual reports of six American astronauts who rocketed into space.

The paper, presented by Maj. William B. Clark, said that with proper reconnaissance training, military space pilots could readily spot missile bases, encampments, troop movements and "unsuspected targets of opportunity" from their 100-mile-high outposts.

"Specific definition of man's maximum visual capabilities in space will be one of the most militarily significant achievements in future orbital flights," the paper said.

The report leaned heavily on the remarkable accounts given by Maj. Leroy Gordon Cooper Jr. after his 22-orbit flight last May.

Cooper said he clearly saw houses and streets in the Himalaya mountains, on the plains of Tibet and in the southwest United States. He said he sighted a vehicle moving on a road, a boat on a river and a steam locomotive on a track.

Some doctors doubted Cooper. They said such sighting from his altitude was beyond the capability of the human eye. Some said the astronaut must have suffered hallucinations.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration assigned a five-man team of experts to determine if Cooper did see objects on earth with such clarity. It concluded that he did.

The ophthalmologist paper concurred.

"When we speak of seeing," it said, "We are talking about a complex process which involves intellect and experience as well as optics. We can recognize close friends at greater distances than casual acquaintances. We make this recognition on the basis of imaged clues with which we have become familiar at closer range."

"Major Cooper saw things from orbit in this same way," the paper continued.

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union has accused West Germany of developing military rockets capable of carrying nuclear weapons.

In a protest to the United States, Britain, France and West Germany, the Kremlin said the alleged rocket development was in "gross violation" of the limitations placed on Germany by the unconditional surrender after World War II.

The Soviet note disputed the West German government's statement in December that the rockets were for weather purposes.

Leap Year Heart to Win a Heart!

THIS DESSERT IS SO TEMPTING and so delicious that, served to the man of your choice, it will surely win you a proposal to be his life-long dessert maker. And, if you're already married, this luscious dessert will make your husband happy — he'll know he has the best wife in the world.

- CHOCOLATE MACAROON CREAM
- 1 envelope (1 tbsp) gelatin
 - 2/3 cup sugar
 - 1/8 teaspoon salt
 - 1/4 cup cold water
 - 1-1/4 cups milk
 - 2 squares Baker's Unsweetened Chocolate
 - 2 egg whites
 - 1/4 cup sugar
 - 1 teaspoon vanilla
 - 1/4 teaspoon almond extract
 - 1 cup heavy cream
 - 1/2 cup fine dry macaroon crumbs

Mix gelatin, 2/3 cup sugar, and the salt in a saucepan. Add water and milk. Place over low heat, stirring constantly, until gelatin is dissolved. Add chocolate. Stir constantly over medium heat until chocolate is melted. Add vanilla and almond extract. Beat with rotary beater until mixture is blended. Chill until slightly thickened. Beat egg whites until foamy throughout. Add 1/4 cup sugar, 2 tablespoons at a time, beating after each addition. Continue beating until mixture will form stiff shiny peaks. Whip the cream. Fold egg white mixture and whipped cream into chocolate mixture. Blend in macaroon crumbs. Spoon into a 1-1/2-quart mold. Chill until firm. Unmold. Garnish with additional whipped cream, if desired. Makes about 5-1/3 cups, or 8 to 10 servings.

257 Million Chicks Produced in '63

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Arkansas poultrymen produced 257,421,000 broiler chicks in 1963, six per cent more than in 1962, and ranked second nationally among the 22 poultry producing states.

Gross income in Arkansas from broiler production in 1963 totaled $116 million, $4 million or three per cent above the 1962 gross income.

In 1963 the average price per pound to Arkansas dealers was 13.7 cents compared with 14.5 cents in 1962.

The gross broiler income of the 22 producing states in 1963 was $977,097,000, compared with $968,153,000 in 1962. The 22 states produced 93 per cent of the nation's broilers in 1962.

Georgia, the leading state, produced 359,760,000 broilers. Broiler production in the 22 states was a record 1,962,302,000, up four per cent from 1963. Nationally, producer prices averaged 14.4 cents a pound compared with 15.1 in 1962.

Treatment Shrinks Chest Tumor Size

SEATTLE (AP)—Treatments have reduced the size of the malignant chest tumor from which Fred Hutchinson, manager of the Cincinnati Reds, is suffering and doctors are pleased with the progress.

"It is extremely gratifying," Dr. Oriliss Wildermuth of the Swedish Hospital Tumor Institute said. "Normally, at this stage of treatment we are happy if the tumor has stopped growing."

Dr. Wildermuth said Hutchinson "is progressing very satisfactorily" and probably will be able to report for spring training at Tampa, Fla., March 1.

Hutch was making no predictions Tuesday.

"They don't tell me anything other than the fact that things are going well," he said.

—The U.S. Air Force has begun a piece-by-piece examination of the wreckage of an Air Force jet trainer shot down over Communist East Germany last Tuesday.

The remaining parts are being laid out in a hangar at the Wiesbaden air base to reconstruct as far as possible the plane's original shape. An Air Force spokesman said there would be no statement until the study is completed.

Three U.S. officers were killed when the plane was downed 56 miles inside East Germany.

ISTANBUL, Turkey (AP) — Ten persons were killed and 25 others seriously injured in the head-on collision Monday of a bus and a truck near suburban Kartal, east of Istanbul.

MOSCOW (AP)—Two leading officials of a Latvian state trade organization have been sentenced to die before a firing squad for taking bribes.

TOKYO (AP) — Japanese businessmen have signed trade contracts with Communist North Korea totaling $11.1 million for the first half of 1964 and hope to reach $27.7 million before the year is out.

Stock Groups Supported by Exchange

By SAM DAWSON

AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Floor traders and stock specialists—subject to criticism by some federal regulators—got warm support Tuesday from the president of the New York Stock Exchange.

G. Keith Funston told the House Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee that they behaved admirably, on the whole, in the frenzied 27-minute span between the news of President John F. Kennedy's assassination and the closing of the market.

He said much of the buying support came from specialists and floor traders, while individual customers of brokerage houses provided most of the selling pressure that tumbled prices.

What are the roles of these men and the meaning of other terms peculiar to stock trading?

Floor trader — member of a stock exchange who trades on the floor in securities for his own account.

Floor broker—member of an exchange who executes on the floor orders to buy or sell any listed stock as received by phone from his brokerage firm.

$2 broker—exchange member who executes orders on the floor for other brokers busy with other orders or for firms whose member broker isn't on hand. Formerly the fee was $2 per 100 shares; now varies with price of stock.

Specialist—exchange member charged with maintaining a reasonably orderly market in one or more stocks in one industry. To do so he must be ready to buy or sell for his own account. He also acts as a broker for other members who leave orders and then go on to other trading posts.

Special offering — block of stock so large as to require special handling. Ticker tape announcements offer for sale at fixed price, usually based on last transaction in regular auction market. Other member firms may buy from the seller's broker during trading hours.

Secondary distribution — redistribution of a block, usually large, some time after stock has been sold by issuing company. Handled off the floor of exchange by securities firm or group of firms, and offered at fixed price. Often a block is involved in settlement of an estate.

Treasury stock—shares issued by company but later reacquired; may be held in company's treasury indefinitely, reissued to public, used for employee stock option or retired; while held by company receives no dividends and has no vote.

In-and-out—trader who buys and sells same stock within short period; more interested in day-to-day price changes than dividends or long-term growth.

Brokers usually cut commissions for quick round-trip transactions. Example: stock sold on news of shooting of President Kennedy might have been re-bought soon afterwards to take advantage of steep price drop.

Arbitrage—buying and selling the same or equivalent securities at the same time in different markets. Example: buying a share for $90 in New York and selling for $95 in San Francisco or London, if such a price differential exists at time; or buying a convertible bond and selling the stock into which it is convertible.

Investor—buys stock for regular dividend income, safety of investment, and capital appreciation over a long term.

Speculator—accepts large risk in hope of quick gain on rising stock price, with little interest in dividend income; or may buy into unknown company which he doesn't expect to be productive for years.

Professional—one who makes a living buying and selling securities; or a student of the market.

Boiler room — high-pressure peddling over the phone of stocks of dubious value, often from a room with little in it but phones.

Bucket shop—illegal operation in which operator accepted client's money without ever actually buying or selling stock but gambling that the customer was wrong. If too many customers were right, the bucket shop closed to reopen in new location.

Corner—buying stock or commodity in such volume as to gain control over price, forcing would-be buyer, such as one who has sold short, to pay arbitrarily high price.

Both Osceola and Luxora were at one time important river ports.

Arkansas Animals to Nat'l Aquarium

WASHINGTON (AP)—Keller and Manian Breland of Hot Springs have been hired by the federal government to hold an animal show at the new $10 million national Aquarium in Washington.

The Brelands, a husband and wife team of psychologists who operate Animal Behavior Enterprises, Inc., said they expect to build the show around a dolphin.

They said the dolphin, or porpoise, will perform without the frills of a public show. The show is expected to open about 1967.

Held on Open Charge

EL DORADO, Ark. (AP) — Gertha Lee Lindsey, 39, a Negro of El Dorado, was found dead late Monday in a house. Police are holding a Negro man on an open charge in connection with the death, which apparently came Saturday night.

Interstate Road Bids Are Sought

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The state Highway Commission will take bids Feb. 26 on $4.6 million worth of road work, including two interstate highway projects and road construction in two Titan II missile launcher area.

The interstate projects:

Three miles of Interstate Route 40 from just east of the Palestine interchange, eastward across the L'Angeuille River in St. Francis County, and erection of signs and delineators on 9.1 miles of Interstate Route 55 from the U.S. Highway 65 interchange near Blytheville to the Missouri line.

The Central Arkansas work, where the missile sites are, includes surfacing of 8.41 miles of Highway 95 between U.S. Highway 64 at Morrilton and the entrance to Missile Site 11 in Conway County and surfacing of 29.91 miles of roads near missile Site 8 in Cleburne County.

The latter roads are: Highway 16 between Highway 25 south of Heber Springs and U.S. Highway 67 - B at Searcy and Highway 157 between U.S. Highway 67 near Judsonia northward for 3.4 miles.

Other bids, by counties: Arkansas: Grading and building a 242 foot bridge on Highway 152 from 2.3 miles southeast of Humphrey along a new location.

Chicot: Three bridges over Bayou Macon, Canal 43 and Clay Bayou on Highway 35 about 3 miles southeast of Halley.

Clark: Construction of a 638 foot bridge over the Caddo River on Highway 84, about 2.5 miles northeast of Amity.

Crawford: Surfacing and widening Fayetteville Avenue at Alma.

Drew: Surfacing 5.39 miles of Highway 83 northward from one mile north of Highway 4 at Monticello.

Faulkner and White: Surfacing 38.97 miles of Highway 36 between Hamlet and Searcy.

Lincoln: Construct a 372-foot bridge over Bayou Bartholomew on Highway 293, six miles east of Star City.

Madison: Surfacing 6.1 miles and construction of a bridge on Highway 45 near Hindsville.

Mississippi: Construction of three bridges on Highway 181 between Highway 140 and Highway 18.

Searcy: Surfacing 1.9 miles of a county road near Marshall.

Woodruff: Building 8.24 miles of U. S. Highway 64, including two bridges, from Patterson to one mile east of McCrory.

Intervention Asked at Jackson, Miss.

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP) — Rev. Ben Grinage, chairman of the anti-segregation Pine Bluff Movement, said Tuesday night he had sent telegrams to President Johnson and U.S. Atty. Gen. Robert Kennedy demanding immediate federal intervention in Jackson, Miss.

Grinage said police brutality in Jackson demanded it.

The telegram said that events at Jackson Monday "have proven to be another example of increasing incidents of police brutality against Negroes in general and civil rights workers in particular in the South."

Grinage said of the shooting of two Student Non-Violent Co-

Indoor Humidity Affects Comfort

North, South, East, West, no matter where you live, lack of humidity can be a problem.

Los Angeles had a record low of less than one per cent humidity recently.

In Chicago, the Weather Bureau says outside air at zero degrees with 100 per cent humidity will drop to 6 per cent humidity when heated to 72 degrees — drier than the average desert!

Low humidity contributes to dry, itchy skin and respiratory ailments; makes wood panels crack, pets shed and house plants droop. The solution? A humidifier, which draws air in and forces it through a wet screen of Scott industrial foam. Hot dry air picks up moisture from the foam, and is blown into the room as humidified air. Odorless, flexible urethane foam pads filter dust particles, and are easy to remove for cleaning or replacement. Controls keep humidity in the comfort zone — 30 to 50 per cent indoors.

SOUTH KOREAN MILITARY MIGHT—Republic of Korea army troops display their marching prowess and machinery on a Seoul boulevard. The capital city is surrounded by hills. Its buildings are a mixture of new and old.

Many Towns Cut Off by Snowstorm

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Scores of towns and cities were isolated and traffic was paralyzed as a near blizzard swept ponderously through portions of five southwestern states Tuesday.

Snowfalls of 6-25 inches were whipped into drifts of up to 10 feet in eastern New Mexico, southeastern Colorado, southwestern Kansas and the Texas and Oklahoma panhandles.

Thousands of cars and trucks and some buses dotted the sides of the highways and streets, abandoned by occupants now snowbound in motels and hotels waiting out the storm.

Schools, offices and stores remained closed in many cities and towns, except for emergency use.

Texas Gov. John Connally put Amarillo on an emergency basis and mobilized the National Guard for duty. The snowfall ranged between 10-15 inches in the area.

The heaviest snow was 25 inches in Borger, Tex.

The weather was blamed for four deaths in New Mexico and three in southeastern Texas.

Helicopters stood by today waiting for the weather to clear to join a search for two cowboys missing in the Texas Panhandle since yesterday.

Liberal, Kan., had 10 inches of snow; Buymon, Okla., and Trinidad, Colo., 12; Boise City, Okla., reported 15½; Ruidoso, N.M., 16; and Panhandle, Tex., 19½.

A tornado struck near Eagle Lake in the Houston area, injuring a railroad worker when his trailer house was overturned.

Five inches of hail fell in Chesterville, a community in the same general area.

Farmers welcomed the moisture, but stockmen were concerned about getting feed to their cattle. However, temperatures generally did not fall below the 20s and livestock losses were expected to be light.

Taft Helper Dies at Age of 70

MADISON, Wis. (AP)—Thomas E. Coleman, who led the unsuccessful fight of the late Sen. Robert A. Taft for the presidential nomination at the 1952 Republican National Convention, is dead.

Coleman, 70, died of cancer Tuesday at his home in suburban Maple Bluff.

Coleman, president of a Madison industrial firm, began working in the Republican party in the 1928 campaign that elected Walter Kohler Sr. governor of Wisconsin. He was state GOP chairman from 1943 to 1947 and also served as party treasurer.

ordinating Committee field secretaries — George Greene and Jesse Morris — "This kind of continual harassment and vicious attacks give further evidence of the drastic need for federal intervention in the state of Mississippi, in order to secure and insure the civil rights of all its citizens."

Fire Hits Lumber Firm at Waldron

WALDRON, Ark. (AP) — A fire hit the Waldron Lumber Co. Monday, and the company owner, T. M. Works, said the loss was about $75,000.

Works said the planer mill and boiler room of the company were destroyed. Strong winds hampered firefighters.

The company was the third lumber products firm in Scott County to be struck by fire in the last three months.

Father Image Towers Over Two Chinas

Second of three articles on the perplexities of the "Two Chinas" concept.

By ROY ESSOYAN
TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — An aging father image towers over each of the two Chinas.

France's efforts to establish diplomatic relations with Red China have focused world attention on these two leaders of China, arch enemies for decades.

Nationalist China's Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek, a slim and ascetic 76, still rules his island stronghold of Formosa 100 miles off the China coast with firm hand.

Communist China's party chief Mao Tse-tung, a round and moon-faced 70, is the unquestioned father of Chinese communism, the historian, Marxist theoretician and military strategist whose word is law for the 700 million people of mainland China.

Both Mao and Chiang appear healthy and show no sign of bowing off the world stage.

Both men are past their prime. The struggle to which they have devoted their lives — the establishment of China as a world power to be reckoned with — probably will have to be carried on by their successors.

Chiang and Mao, however, have towered over possible successors for nearly 40 years. Their mantles — and the total power they wield — probably could not be passed on to any single individual in either country.

Diplomats and scholars in Hong Kong and Taipei expect Red China to remain rigid and uncompromising in its relations with the outside world for the foreseeable future, except insofar as changes may suit its purpose.

Nationalist China is expected to continue leaning on the United States for its defense while depending less and less on American economic assistance as U.S. aid is gradually phased out.

Some experts here feel the men who follow Chiang and Mao may work out some form of compromise settlement.

"Chiang is Nationalist China and Nationalist China is Chiang," one European diplomat here said. "If Chiang goes, Nationalist China can't survive for long as an independent entity."

But opinion is divided on this point. Much depends on the personality of the men who follow Chiang and Mao. The choice is limited.

Red China's Premier Chou En-lai, a posed, serious and persuasive statesman, is the

Nat'l Forest Hurt for Next Fifty Years

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — The Ouachita National Forest will be 50 years recuperating from 1963 fires which destroyed timber and young growth worth $1 million.

The money would have gone for roads and schools, the Forest Supervisor John T. Koen said Tuesday.

Koen, said the 12 West Arkansas and two East Oklahoma counties the forest covers receive a share of 25 per cent of all national forest receipts each year, based on acreage of national forest land in each county.

He said 1963 fires will reduce the total receipts for the 14 counties by $20,000 a year for 50 years.

In addition, fighting fires in the forest in 1963 cost $400,000, and 89 per cent of the fires were man-caused, Koen said.

Koen said the largest fire the National Forest Service fought in 1963, north of Mena, burned 13,000 acres and destroyed 20 million board feet of timber.

Altogether, 430 fires burned 20,355 acres of Ouachita National Forest and 6,466 acres of private timberland within the forest, he said. It will be 20 years before the burned areas can produce pulpwood, and half a century before high grade sawtimber can be cut.

Personalized License Plates

JUNEAU, Alaska (AP) — For an extra $50—if the Senate goes along with a House-approved bill — Alaskan motorists will be able to get personalized vehicle license plates.

The fee, added to the usual license tax, would get you any combination of seven letters or numbers, to form names, initials or slogans. The possibilities are staggering.

In Nationalist China the strongest personality next to Chiang is Chiang's Russian-trained eldest son, Li. Gen. Chiang Ching-kuo, a stocky, soft-spoken, politically austere but socially pleasant man of 54. Chiang Ching-kuo derives much of his power from his father but he has built up an apparatus of his own and controls the garrison command in charge of overall security and the political department of the army.

Despite the power Chiang Ching-kuo wields, there is a strong feeling President Chiang will be succeeded by Vice President Chen Cheng, a firm but relatively colorless man of 66 in ailing health.

Anti-U. S. Picketing Protested

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States has protested to the government of Ghana concerning anti-American demonstrations in front of the U.S. Embassy in Accra.

The U.S. protest was issued

Tuesday night by G. Mennen Williams, assistant secretary of state for African affairs, to Ambassador Miguel A. Ribeiro of Ghana.

One unofficial report said demonstrators tore down the U.S. flag outside the embassy but that the assistant attaché, in what unofficially was termed an act of courage and bravery, ran it back up.

The attaché was identified as Adger E. Player, 31, a Negro from Denver, Colo., who is serving in his first State Department post. He was named to it July 13, 1962.

The demonstrators marched around the embassy and carried placards that read "down with Yankee imperialism" and "Ghana yes, Yankee no."

U.S. Ambassador William P. Mahoney Jr. made a strong representation to Foreign Minister Kojo Botso of Ghana, the State Department had said earlier.

Explains Why He's Living in America

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie - Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — "I pay my taxes here, so why shouldn't I enjoy living in this country?" Thus singing sensation Sergio Franchi explains why he is making America his home.

His taxes are getting higher all the time as his success grows in night clubs, records and television. He doesn't seem to mind paying. He admires the honesty of American taxpayers.

"In Italy it is different," he said. "There you wear a beard and your oldest clothes when you go to declare your income. You say you earned a million lire last year, and the tax collector immediately figures you earned 10 million. So you haggle back and forth until you slip some money into his hand. Then he puts you down for one million and everybody is happy."

It's different here. Franchi is now equipped with tax advisers, as well as a manager, a squad of agents and publicists, and all of the trappings of American success. His career has been snowballing with appearances in Las Vegas and top supper clubs, television dates with Ed Sullivan and Victor Borge, a Carnegie Hall concert, etc.

The classically profiled tenor was in Hollywood for a Feb. 14 Bob Hope show. He indicated that he hopes to adopt a more sensible schedule.

At least he won't have to be commuting to his home in England. He is bringing his wife and two children to New York next month. He said he is planning to begin procedure for American citizenship.

Setting in America would end an odyssey that has carried Franchi over three continents. He was born in Cremona, Italy, then emigrated with his parents to South Africa in 1952. He studied voice and scored success in operas. But he knew he would have to return to Italy for additional seasoning.

He made his debut in Cremona and toured throughout Europe until he landed in England. An appearance on the television show "Sunday Night at the Palladium" proved the turning point. An RCA - Victor recording contract followed, and he was on his way.

Says Vacation Farms Could Bring Income

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Vacation farms can put money in the farmer's pocket and help meet the need for rural recreation, a speaker said Monday.

Dolph Pegg, supervisor of the Moorefield Soil and Water Conservation District in Arkansas, spoke at the convention of the National Association of Soil and Water Conservation Districts.

"A vacation farm may be simply a well-run farm which takes in a few paying guests or the dude ranch type which centers on the guest and his pleasure," Pegg said.

On a vacation farm a guest can help do the chores and actually become a farmer for a week, he explained.

Pegg said he heard of a farmer in New England who is charging visitors 25 cents each to watch him stop the hogs.

The federal government, Pegg said, sees in the trend "an opportunity to convert some low-income farm land to a much needed recreational enterprise, and this conversion would contribute toward reduction of crop surpluses."

Mrs. Oscar Hippe of Froid, Mont., president of the association's national auxiliary, told 2,000 delegates that women own about half the land in the United States. She said the auxiliary intends to see that more

Nippy Sauce for Cabbage
The next time boiled cabbage is on your dinner menu, serve it with this sparkling-good sauce. Cut the cabbage into wedges before boiling it, and pour the hot sauce over each individual serving.

MUSTARD CREAM SAUCE
3 tablespoons butter
3 tablespoons flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1 1/2 cups milk
2 teaspoons prepared mustard
1/2 teaspoon Lea & Perrins Worcestershire Sauce
1 small head cabbage, cut in wedges, cooked and drained
Melt butter in saucepan. Blend in flour, salt and pepper. Add milk slowly and cook over low heat, stirring constantly until sauce is smooth and thickened. Add mustard and Worcestershire sauce; mix well. Boil 5 minutes. Add cabbage wedges. Makes 1 1/2 cups sauce, enough for four servings.

"WHERE THERE'S A WILL—"

By Helen Worden Erskine

Dear Helen: My wife and I are gregarious souls, happy-go-lucky and outgoing, long on friends, short on money. Last Christmas we notified everybody that we intended to send no greeting cards because we just couldn't afford the tariff.

My wife is a swell gal but being pretty independent and mighty proud, suffers from oversensitivity because we've had to live with my parents the entire two years of our married life. The folks are as good as gold to us but this doesn't alter the fact that we're just a couple of needy relatives.

To get back to Christmas during the holidays we dropped in to say "hello" to some friends. First thing my wife did was thank them for their beautiful Christmas card. "And thank you for yours," said the lady of the house. We smiled and reminded her that we didn't send any. "Oh, yes you did," she insisted. "I distinctly recall that your card was so lovely I mentioned it to one of your other friends. It surprised her that you sent us one when she'd got none."

Whew! did that upset my wife. She yackety-yacked about it all the way home and when Mom tried to calm her down flew into a regular tizzy. Now, I'm upset. Do you think we should look up our "forgotten" friend and explain how things really were or let the whole blamed thing die down? I hesitate to cause further friction by asking Mom's advice so am turning to you. —Mrs. Mixed-Up.

Dear Mixed-Up: "Never complain, never explain" is a pretty good rule to follow. Don't commit the folly of fanning the teapot tempest into a real storm by attempting to explain the whys and wherefores.

The blow up on the part of your wife is caused by the fact that you are indeed on the family dole. Get at the root of the problem: lack of money. What you two undoubtedly able-bodied young things must do is sit down and figure out a way for each of you to earn enough to support yourselves. List your respective talents, training and so forth. Decide what each of you is best qualified to do then go after jobs in these particular fields. If you need more training, seek it at the nearest vocational school. If people are willing to apply themselves there never need be any lack of work even during job - slacks. Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for my leaflet "Ambition."

Dear Helen: Mom won't let me date unless my 8-year-old cousin tags along as chaperon. He's a pest, forever mimicking my boy friend, hollering to everybody to come look at us and generally acting the nuisance. I am 13 and my boy friend 15. I could have others if it weren't for this blight. Don't you think Mom unreasonable? —Girl-in-Love.

Dear Girl: You mother is entirely right about refusing to permit you, at your age, to date without a third person being present. But I don't think your cousin should be inflicted upon you and your boy friend. Seek a compromise with her by suggesting she let you invite him and other boys and girls of similar age to your home for record hops or games so that she can keep an eye on things herself. A supervised, well-planned social life is essential if we want our children to grow up into well-adjusted, mature human beings.

Dear Helen: We are a large family—I being the eldest. I have an awful temper and too much "grouch." Things go smoothly so long as I remember to control myself, but let a critical, or taunting word be said and I'm off. Result? Mom tells me how peaceable home is without me.

My sisters and I work around the house for free. When we mention this to Mom she says she never got t paid by her folks when she helped at home as a girl. True, we do raise pets and, wehn lucky enough to sell them, are allowed to keep all the money. Do you think we should hand the profits over to Mom and be satisfied with our pets as such? Also, can you tell me how to keep from getting mad? —Ginger.

Dear Ginger: A high temper, as in our case, simply means lack of will to control it. So, the thing for you to do is to cultivate will power. Each morning list the things you plan to do that day and put "Control my temper" at the top of the list. During the day mark off each thing as accomplished.

If keeping your temper hasn't been one of them penalize yourself by cutting out whatever you most enjoy; a favorite dessert, seeing a special movie, dating best boy friend. With repetition comes strength. As for pet profits; if your mother needs the money, give it to her. If not—

Death Report Doesn't Tell True Story

By JAMES BACON
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — The coroner's report on Alan Ladd's death was terse, clinical and cold.

It didn't tell the whole story about Alan Ladd, a shy, sentimental fellow who never hurt anybody but himself.

The report, issued Monday, listed the cause of Ladd's death last Wednesday as cerebral edema—a swelling of the brain by fluids. Said Coroner James S. Bird in his report:

"The case will be signed out as an accidental death. The combination of alcohol, seconal, Librium and Sparine produced together the total effects the depressants had on the central nervous system with the high level of alcohol being the major factor."

Seconal is a barbiturate; Librium a tranquilizer and Sparine a drug that quiets the central nervous system.

Ladd, 50, thought he was miscast as a movie star — even though he was one of the most successful box office stars in history.

Once when he was getting $25,000 a week at Warner Bros. he glanced up at a stage hand working on a railing above the set.

"You know," he reflected, "I used to do that during the Depression for $2.50 a week and they were happy days."

For the last three years, Alan has been inactive on the screen. Last summer, Martin Rackin, head of production at Paramount, cast Alan as Nevada Smith in the unreleased "The Carpetbaggers."

But Rackin, who got his first production job from Ladd, said Alan did not even want to see the daily rushes of the film.

Rackin said Ladd's performance is so good that the studio planned a sequel to be called "Nevada Smith."

WHEN ENTERTAINING wrecks your food budget, recoup with a variety of thrifty, tasty ground beef dishes. Here's one your family will love:

BAKED STUFFED EGGPLANT
1 large eggplant
3/4 lb. ground beef
3/4 cup milk
1 tsp. salt
1 tbsp. A-1 Steak Sauce
3/4 cup rolled bread crumbs
1 beaten egg

Wash eggplant, halve lengthwise, parboil 15 minutes. Scoop out center. Mix other ingredients together, fill center of eggplant. Place in baking dish, bake in 400 degree oven 25-35 minutes. Garnish with sliced stuffed olives. Serves 4.

Surplus Food Handouts to Continue

WASHINGTON (AP)—Federal assistance in helping feed the nation's needy will continue as before, although the House Agriculture Committee has shelved legislation recommended by President Johnson to set up a nationwide food stamp program.

For years, the agriculture department has been donating surplus foods acquired under farm price support programs to help feed the hungry.

The administration had sought to do away gradually with the donation plan. The President wanted to replace it with the food stamp plan under which needy persons get government stamps—a rather than surplus foods — good for the purchase of food at regular grocery stores.

The stamp plan is being operated successfully on a trial or pilot basis in 41 counties in various parts of the country, including Independence County, Ark., and in the cities of St. Louis and Detroit.

Under the direct donation plan, stocks of food bought by the department in bolstering producer prices are donated to state and local welfare agencies for distribution to upwards of 6 million persons on welfare or relief rolls.

House agriculture committee members said cost was one of the reasons the stamp plan was rejected Tuesday. Virtually the full cost of the program would have fallen on the federal government.

Under the direct distribution or donation plan, the cost of distribution fell on state and local relief agencies.

The food stamp plan would cost $360 million a year on a nationwide basis. The cost of the direct distribution program has been running $225 million
